

SENATORS' STAR PITCHERS TAKE TWO FROM NAPS

Boehling Wins the First When He Allows Cleveland Only Four Hits, While Johnson Allows Two Hits.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—With second place in the American league race at stake, Washington and Cleveland Tuesday began one of the most important series of the season with a double-header here, both ends of which went to Washington, 8 to 1 and 8 to 2.

The games were won mainly through the air-tight pitching of Boehling and Johnson, Washington's two best hurlers. Boehling allowed but four hits, and Johnson had been hit safely only twice when he retired after the eighth. Ayers, a recruit from Richmond, Va., succeeded Johnson and was hit three times in one inning.

Manager Birmingham started two of his star pitchers, Gregg and Blanding, but neither was effective. Gregg was wild and was forced to retire in the second inning of the first game before a man was out. Cullop succeeded him with the bases loaded and prevented Washington from scoring. He in turn gave way after the sixth to James, who later was called upon to relieve Blanding in the second game. The youngest pitched good ball.

Washington made 27 hits in the two games, for a total of 38 bases. Moeller was the slugging star of the day, making a home run, a triple and two singles out of eight times up.

First game—Cleveland . . . 001 000 000—1 4 3 Washington . . . 001 203 20—8 13 1 Gregg, Cullop, James, Carlisch, and O'Neil; Boehling and Henry. Umpires—Evans and Egan.

Second game—Cleveland . . . 010 000 001—2 5 3 Washington . . . 123 000 02—8 14 4 Blanding, James, O'Neil and Blanding; Johnson, Ayers, Adams and Williams. Umpires—Egan and Evans.

YANKEES TAKE GAME BY A LONESOME RUN

Leverenz Throws Away the Game When With Three on He Walks

Peckinpough.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Leverenz' momentary wildness cost St. Louis Tuesday's game with New York, the locals winning, 6 to 5.

The game was a see-saw affair. Fisher was hit hard by the visitors, but kept in the game until the eighth inning, when he gave way to a pinch hitter.

St. Louis started by hammering him for three runs in the first. Walker cleaned up the bases with a double. The New York's fought back, scoring two single runs in successive innings, and drove Wellman out of the box in the fifth, when three runs were scored on four clean hits, a sacrifice and a steal.

St. Louis got one run in the sixth on Walker's single and Williams' triple, the latter being thrown out trying for a home run.

Singles by Pratt, Williams and Covington tied the score in the first half of the eighth, but Leverenz forced over the winning run for New York in the second half, when with the bases full, Peckinpough was sent in to bat for Fisher and was walked.

St. Louis . . . 001 001 010—5 11 1 New York . . . 001 130 01—6 8 0 Wellman, Leverenz and Agnew; Fisher, Ford and Sweeney. Umpires—Ferguson and Sheridan.

PINCH HITTER WINS GAME FOR CHAMPIONS

Rehg Cracks Out a Single in the 11th Inning and Detroit is Loser.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Rehg, a pinch hitter, won Tuesday's game for Boston when he singled in the eleventh inning, enabling Gardner, who had previously hit safely, to score the run which gave the world's champions a 3 to 2 victory over Detroit.

The visitors tied the score in the ninth inning after the home team had a one-run lead from the third inning. Boston scored in the first inning on singles by Hooper and Engle, and sacrifices by Speaker and Lewis.

One-base hits by Cobb and Onslow, Gardner's error, and a wild pitch allowed Detroit to tie the score in the second inning. The locals' second run came in the third inning on bases and balls to Hooper and Speaker, an infield out and a sacrifice fly by Lewis.

In the ninth inning after Cobb had walked, Hooper dropped a long fly by Veach and Cobb reached third base. Cobb went out, however, when Onslow died to Speaker, catching Cobb in a double play. McKee then singled, scoring Veach with the tying run.

Detroit . . . 010 000 001 00—2 10 0 Boston . . . 101 000 000 01—3 10 2 Grover, Dube, Gibson and McKee; Moseley and Cady. Umpires—Hildebrand and O'Loughlin.

BODIE'S HITTING WINNER FOR SOX

Ping Drives Out a Home Run and Sends the Other Run Across While League Leaders Are Held Scoreless.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Bodie's stick work secured a victory for Chicago over Philadelphia here Tuesday by 2 to 0. Bodie scored in the second inning on a home run drive into the left field bleachers and his single in the fourth session tallied J. Collins, who had made three bases on a muff by Oldring. Philadelphia got men on the bases in every inning, but only one of them reached third. This was in the second, when two singles and a pass filled the bases, with one out, but Schang hit into a double play.

Randall got two lucky triples, his first being a single which bounced over Stansbury's head and the second a long fly which burst into the sun.

S. GERGACZ TEAM OUT WITH DEFI TO WINNER

Claim City Title and Would Meet Hoosier Creams or the J. Gergacz.

The S. Gergacz baseball club will challenge the winner of the Hoosier Cream and J. Gergacz series either for a three-game series or for one game to decide the real city champions.

The S. Gergacz club is laying strong claims to the city title, having a clean record of nine straight victories and claiming that they have as strong if not a cleaner claim to the city title than either of the other teams now playing for it.

Several of the city's best fans are backing them in their claim, holding that when they defeated Mishawaka, 2 to 1, they showed the real strength of the team, as Mishawaka in turn downed the Elks, and the Hoosier Creams, and although the J. Gergacz club took the long end of a 6 to 2 score with Mishawaka, they were defeated in a second meeting, 13 to 5.

The management of the S. Gergacz club says, should the winners of the present city series refuse to play the S. Gergacz they will claim the city championship for 1913.

POOR JUDGMENT WINS FOR CUBS

Oakes Lets One Get by Him in the Seventh Inning and Three Men Score When It Goes for a Home Run.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Outfielder Oakes misjudged Corriden's long drive in the seventh inning Tuesday and it went for a home run with two men scoring ahead of Corriden and Chicago won the last game of the season with St. Louis, 4 to 0, making nine straight victories.

The game was a pitchers' battle in which Southpaw Neihaus, a recruit pitcher, formerly with the Battle Creek, Mich., team, had a shade over Edgie Stack.

The visitors had a chance to score when O'Leary doubled and attempted to score on Neihaus' single to left. Miller's perfect throw beat him to the plate by a close margin.

Joe Boehling, the classy young twirling recruit of the Washington Senators, who set the American league on fire early in the season by winning his first eleven starts.

After losing the twelfth game in which he performed since he made his big league debut, Boehling slid into a slump, from which he has just emerged. He is now working to his true form and promises to be an admirable box mate for the wonderful Walter Johnson.

WILD THROW GIVES GAME TO BROOKLYN

Dolan Heaves One to First and Yingling Scores With the Winning Run.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—Brooklyn defeated Rube Robinson, Pittsburgh's big left hander, for the first time in three seasons Tuesday afternoon by 2 to 0. A wild throw by Dolan gave Brooklyn both runs in the fifth.

With Yingling on first and one out, Moran bunted towards third and had it beaten out but Dolan's throw went into right field, allowing Yingling to score and Moran to reach third from which point he scored on an out.

Both Robinson and Yingling pitched fine ball. Wagner disputed several of Umpire Orth's decisions and he was banished in the eighth.

The final heat between the first four trotters was a procession with Reusens showing the way for almost the entire distance. A peculiar phase of this event was the fact that the first three heats were made in exactly the same time, 2:08 1-4.

Tom Murphy piloted Marigold to victory in the 2:06 trot, Santos Maid offering the only opposition. Hon Zouki outclutched the field in the 2:16 trot and but for an unfortunate break in the stretch in the third heat would have won in straight heats.

Lady Grattan contested every inch of the way with the big black gelding but could not stand the grueling finisher.

The 2:09 pace was won by Marietta. Princess Patch taking the second heat.

When the Athletics and Giants hook up in their third world's series, next month, out in center field will be two stars upon whom the eyes of the baseball world will be turned. They are "Rube" Oldring and Fred Snodgrass.

Snodgrass was the goat in last season's world's series between the Giants and Boston, dropping a fly in the last game that gave the title to Boston after the Giants' game rally had tied the count.

Oldring didn't do much in the series of 1911. A heavy hitter, naturally, he batted but .200 against the Giants, although he pulled a home run and a couple of doubles, but his batting was not of the timely order like that of Collins and Baker.

This season Oldring has outbatted Snodgrass and has been playing brilliantly for the Connie Macks, as the result of severe discipline. He was one of the players whose lack of condition, more than anything else, cost the champions of 1910 and 1911 the flag last year, and his playing this season has been more brilliant by contrast.

SINGERS WILL RAISE PENNANT NEXT SATURDAY

Flag, Presented by News-Times, is Ten Feet by 24 Feet and Will be Flung in Breeze Before Game.

Pennant day in the Factory league has been set for next Saturday afternoon when the Singers, the winners of the pennant in the league will stage another contest with a team composed of some of the best players from the other teams in the league.

The pennant, which was donated to the league by the News-Times is expected to be completed by Friday and will be raised on the pole previous to the game Saturday. Then will follow the game which is expected to be a splendid contest since it took the Singers team eleven innings to defeat the All Stars last Saturday and then they did it only by a count of two to one.

Red and green are the colors of the big pennant which is to be ten feet high and 24 feet long. One-half of the pennant will be red and the other half green. Down the center in white letters will be worked the words, "Factory League Champions of 1913."

Owing to inability to get the goods from Chicago the pennant was not completed as soon as it was expected. The goods were secured in New York and the employees at Ellsworth are now busy sewing the cloth and preparing for the big pennant day.

Outside of the flag raising, the game promises to be of the best seen here this season. Lloyd Yackey who pitched that game last Saturday will be on the mound again this Saturday and he expects to make another creditable showing, but hopes that the break will be with him. DeRose of the Studebaker team will captain the A. Star bunch.

That the factory league has been a success is agreed on and the attendance at last Saturday's game shows that the Singer team has many supporters among the employees of the local plant. This loyalty has helped to bring out the crowds at another factory league schedule with possibly eight teams represented, is certain to be played next season.
